

Respiratory Care Program

WHAT DOES IT COST TO EDUCATE A RESPIRATORY CARE STUDENT?

List of Projected Expenses for Students Enrolling and Completing a 2-yr. Associate Degree Program

1. College Tuition/Fees: ($46.00 per unit of credit - California Resident)

Prerequisites: English, Algebra, Chemistry, Anatomy, Med. Terminology (19 units @ $46.00)	$874.00
Respiratory Care Classes (48.5 units @ $46.00)	$2,231.00
Sciences Courses: Physiology, Microbiology (9 units @ $46.00)	$414.00
Additional general education to complete A.S. in Respiratory Care (18 units @ $46.00)	$828.00
Health Services fee	$108.00
Student Body fees (ID, student union)	$52.00
Campus Parking	$210.00
TOTAL:	$4,717.00

2. Required Materials:

Lab Supplies/Materials	$50.00
Uniform/Stethoscope	$100.00
TOTAL:	$150.00

3. Transportation Costs: Based on average of 30 mile round trip distance to classes and various hospitals throughout San Francisco and San Mateo Counties @ .20/per mile cost. Average 3 days per week x 71 weeks (5 semesters) x 20 mile round trip – approximately 4,260 miles x .20 / per mile.

TOTAL:	$852.00
---------------	-----------------

4. Other Expenses:

Background Check (required for clinical entry)	$113.00
Student Memberships in National/State Organizations (included)	$95.00
Attendance – Professional Seminars / Conferences	$300.00
State License /CRT Initial Application	$500.00
RRT examination (First time applicant)	$390.00
Graduation Expenses (Cap and Gown, pin)	$60.00
TOTAL:	$1,458.00

Grand Total: $7,177.00