

(a) What works well in the draft thus far?

Identified
3 themes
in data collection

Addressing
identified equity
gaps: academic
momentum, sense
of community, &
timely/relevant
support services

Narrative on data compares traditional marginalized populations to the overall college data
to discuss equity.

Action plans for: Service:
appointments, ed
plans (ASEP), new
student supports, SS
workshops, HS
partnerships

(b) What questions does the information raise that you think the narrative should address?

Usage Trends (3.B.): Student and/or community usage trends for all major programming over the last 5 years is explained, & disaggregated program data

Data Collection Overview (3.A.): Program usage and access data and their collection are explained

How does orientation improve students navigations towards goal completion? Does the orientation relate to the Student Education Plan?

The College Liaison Program and the Student Success Program are mentioned in 3Diii, not not described or addressed. I would like to learn more about these programs

Student usage/engagement data and outcomes regarding with highlighted activities (appointments, ASEP, etc.)

Equitable Access to the Program (3.C. & 3.D.): Program access is explained with relevant disaggregated data as compared to the College as a whole.

3.D. Continued: Issues of program access are explained, as are efforts to increase access and their impact.

General counseling usage rates. What % of student meeting with counseling beyond SEP, and are there any equity issues with access and usage?

Virtual vs in-person usage of appointments

What systems are being used to increase outreach? Are students interacting with them?

Does the SEP increase student completion?

(c) What are potential program goals in response to the information?

Increase in outreach to part time students specifically African American , Latinx, and Filipino Students

SEP Goal is reached; what is the end goal SEP goal is supporting?

How might they measuring Matriculation process?

Set percentage targets for SEP creations among PT and less than PT students