

EVENT PLANNING GUIDE

The Marketing, Communications and Public Relations (MCPR) office is pleased to provide support to all departments for college events. The following 11-Point guide may be helpful to you as you plan events.

1 RESERVE SPACE

- a. Reserve space through the Ad Astra system at least 3 weeks prior to your event for most spaces on campus. The Astra Request Guide is a resource to assist you in using the tool.
- b. If you are looking to reserve space in Building 12/Farallon Room, please contact Allison McMahon (do not request in Ad Astra) and include:
 - i. Requested event date;
 - ii. Hours of event;
 - iii. Estimated attendance.
 - iv. Allison will confirm and add the event on Ad Astra.
- c. To reserve the Intercultural Center through Student Equity & Support Programs, please complete the reservation form.
- d. To reserve a classroom, please contact the respective division office.

2 ACCESSIBILITY

- a. Evaluate the accessibility of your event to students/public who may need ADA accommodations and make adjustments where necessary. A campus map may be helpful. The Education Access Center (EAC) is able to assist in making sure alternate materials are available and connecting with ASL interpreters when needed. Please contact Melissa Matthews at the EAC.

3 POST EVENT IN LIVE WHALE

- a. Review the existing events posted on the Campus Event Calendar, powered by LiveWhale, to prevent conflicts with other events. Enter your event name, date and description into the Event Submission Form to publicize your event. Details or flyers can be added or edited later as well. This is the official college events calendar and will bring much needed campus-wide awareness and attention to our events. Please review the Frequently Asked Questions if you are new to using the LiveWhale Calendar system.
