

socc minutes 12.3.14

1. call to order: 2:09 p.m.

2. sign in and roll call

3. approval of agenda

a. mun motioned fsu 2nd motioned carried.

4. approval of minutes

A. mun motion skyline stock 2nd motion carried.

5. Announcements and hearing from the public

a. ptk motioned to suspend the day of the order to special presentation. dennis 2nd. motion carried,

6. special presentations

b. kristhioper koh presented for sustainability action plan.

c. Dead beat writers nick major presenting criteria for funding request, how clubs should request money for something more serious. Nick major proposed this subject for discussion.

d. Nick major presented the club council the proposal a Grant that effects the skyline campus.

VII. Reports

A. Chair

a. Center for Student Life Representative Jazmena announced the clubs that have submitted their packets and are on record at the Student Life office. All clubs in attendance were accounted for.

b. Chairperson Dennis explained that club accounts will be frozen if clubs miss three SOCC meetings.

B. Advisor

a. Advisor John Saenz announced a speaker event with Dolores Huerta, a contemporary activist involved with United Farm Workers movement in the 1960s. The event will take place Thursday December 11 on the second floor of Building 6. SOCC is encouraged to attend this great opportunity.

VIII. Unfinished Business

A. Club Updates

1. Deadbeat Writers Club reported on their Open Mic event on December 2 during the day in Fireside Dining Hall. The event was well-attended and spurred excitement for future open mics.

2. Dance Club advertised their upcoming dance show on Friday December 12. The Skyline student dancers will dance a rendition of the musical "West Side Story".
3. SWE advertised their Exploratorium event on December 4 from 10:30am to 2:30pm in the Quad or in the Dining Hall in case of rain. They club will invite the student body to experiment with the Science Department's physics demos.

B. Coat Drive

1. Activities Commissioner Marlon advertised the Coat Drive, sponsored by ASSC. Students are encouraged to bring coat donations to the Center for Student Life until December 16 for an opportunity to be entered in a free drawing for Skyline Bookstore gift cards.

C. Winter Kickback

1. Activities Commissioner Marlon announced the Winter Kickback, sponsored by the ASSC, to take place Thursday December 11 from 5pm to 7pm. The ASSC will serve food for the night students and have a photo booth.
2. Clubs are invited to have booths displaying intercultural holiday traditions. Clubs must present their idea to an ASSC member in order to table at the event.

D. Film Festival

1. Senator Jonathan advertised the Film Festival, sponsored by the ASSC, to take place on March 19, 2015.
2. Clubs and individuals are encouraged to submit entries to the festival. The ASSC is able to provide submission forms and more information for those who are interested.
3. The first informational meeting will be on December 11 in 6210 at 3pm.

IX. New Business

A. Budget Update

1. Finance Commissioner Davante presented the SOCC budget with $17,843.93 for the rest of the school year. He explained that this budget will allow approximately 35 clubs to receive full funding in the future.

B. Funding Request for Dance Honors Society

- a. Dance Club explained they will use the $500 request to buy reuseable dance costumes.
- b. Motion by Deadbeats to approve full amount. Seconded by FSU. Unanimous vote in favor. Motion passed.

X. Upcoming Events

- A. Next SOCC meeting: February 4, 2015