What is happening?

Growth + Progress

- Culture shift towards “critical consciousness, community, and change”
 - Critically understanding the world, establishing shared identity, creating spaces for “us”
- Together Everyone Achieves More (TEAM) approach to programming
 - Calling in the community to dream, plan, and facilitate programming
- “Let’s Build” approach to maintain and create new partnerships
 - Utilizing on-campus and off-campus resources to better serve campus and community
- Utilizing virtual software to design intentional events and experiences
 - Using software like Padlet and Jamboard to cultivate connection through narrative, resource, and knowledge sharing

SEND SILENCE PACKING® EXHIBIT

Send Silence Packing is a suicide awareness display in which hundreds of backpacks belonging to or representing college students who've died by suicide will be laid across our quad. Send Silence Packing is being brought back to our campus through the generosity of the Associated Students of Skyline College (ASSC), Active Minds @ Skyline College, and Skyline College Personal Counseling.

Thursday, April 7
9 a.m. - 4 p.m.
@ The Quad
