FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUCCESS SUMMIT – SEPTEMBER 21, 2013
JOIN COMMUNITY LEADERS AS THEY CONVENE TO SHAPE INNOVATIVE STRATEGIES ON LOCAL ISSUES

San Bruno, California – August 27, 2013: The President's Council of Skyline College is bringing community leaders from the public, private and nonprofit sectors together to engage in participatory sessions focused on issues of important to the economic vibrancy of the northern peninsula. A one day forum, the Success Summit, will be held on Saturday, September 21, 2013 at Skyline College from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The public is invited to register to participate.

Attendees will have the opportunity to add their voice to the conversation, contributing their perspective and sharing solutions to shape innovative forward movement. Issues that will be discussed are:

- Transportation: The Last Mile
- Communication: Are we losing touch?
- Jobs: Connecting the Needs

The Success Summit will conclude with participants gathering as a group and using “clicker technology” to collectively determine what issue will be brought forward. Successful outcomes from the ongoing focus will be tracked and reported on at subsequent events.

The day also includes two inspirational keynote speakers, Marlena Jackson, Scientist at Genentech and Founder of NexGeneGirls, and Angela Batinovich, CEO of the San Francisco Bulls Hockey Team.

The registration fee for the Summit is $150 per person and includes breakfast, lunch, materials and three dynamic breakout sessions. To register, or learn more, please visit www.skylinesuccesssummit.com .
