VIII. Unfinished Business

A. PCN Funding Request

They will attend to next meeting.

B. Sky Talks

Yanni has a person in mind for getting in contact with Skytalks.

IX. ASSC Event Programs

A. AAPI Heritage Month

a. Finalizing Budget

Dennis has presented to the council the news that contracts are submitted. Marlon has over estimated we only have 600$ left for the budget, which will be used for decorations and etc.

b. Calendar

Japanese Kickoff: Taiko may not happened since the people there tried to contact did not get back to them. Marlon needs suggestions for replacements for Taiko, Dennis suggested that we have a Shami-zen which is like a violin like performer. Also there will be serving mochi.

Asian Wellness day: There will have Faculty Ronda Wimmer, Tai-chi, and have a musician performer and having a Tea Tasting, also having a tibetan meditation facilitator.

Polynesian day: There will be serving spam-isumi, as well as having PCN performer as well, also looking into polynesian dancers as well.

Indian day: There will have a dance performance and this will be a closer.

B. Cora House Donation Event

a. Club Participants

There are currently 8 clubs participating, our council has a box. Nicole challenged the council to bring at least 5 items to place in our box.

b. Arrangements for counting items and delivery to Cora House

Deadline is April 30th, Marlon said the squad will count the items.

C. Sexual Assault Awareness Programs

The date for this event is April 30th in 6206 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. Marlon proposed we name the winner of the Cora Drive. Davante presented what they will be talking about for the program, which is rape culture and what goes on.

D. Spring GA, SSCC

Dennis presented the council what going on with Spring GA (General Assembly). The only group within our sister campus is Canada. Our council is hesitant about going. Nicole and Dennis told the council what goes on about the Conference. Dennis proposed we wait for Amory to talk about it with her.

E. Election Board

Boris explained to the council that they need budget for an Ipad for the elections. Boris also suggested we give away ice cream during voting, instead of the debate, as incentive for students to vote. He also proposed "I Voted" stickers. Boris moved to set a maximum budget of $1000 for the 2015 ASSC Elections. Gianni seconded and motion carried.
